Fatal Traffic Collision under Investigation

Oakdale, CA – Late afternoon collision in the 700 hundred block of West Greger Street results in fatality.

At about 5:45 p.m., officers responded to several 9-1-1 calls reporting a motorcycle traffic collision. When officers and fire personnel arrived on scene, it was determined a male driver of the motorcycle did not survive the collision.

The preliminary investigation indicates a motorcyclist was traveling westbound on Greger Street east of Wild Stallion Drive. The motorcycle struck the roundabout causing the driver to lose control and collide into a residence.

This traffic collision is currently under investigation by Oakdale Police Department personnel as to the cause and sequence of events.

This investigation is in the early stages. Witness statements and physical evidence will be thoroughly evaluated. Preliminary investigation indicates that speed may have been a factor in the collision.
